About BMLC

BMLC members teach local, state and federal officials about the critical importance of Beale AFB civilian and military employees and their families. Council members also make sure those officials appreciate the impact Beale AFB has on our local economy and our national security.

Beale AFB has more than 6900 military employees and civilian personnel. Altogether it injects $627 million a year into our local economy.

Military and civilian employees at Beale AFB represent the 9th Reconnaissance Wing, The 940th Refueling Wing, The 195th ANG Wing, The 548th ISR Group, the 7th SWS and other tenants.

Your support and contribution to BMLC will support our military personnel and their families. By contributing, you will help bridge the gap between our community and Beale Air Force Base.

We greatly appreciate your critical financial support.
